Looking for a contemporary alternative to the diner-style card holders of yesteryear? This collection of Contemporary Card Holders from American Metalcraft are just the ticket. With modern materials and simple, understated designs, these card holders wouldn't look out of place in even the trendiest sushi bar or pâtisserie.

Simple geometric shapes are always en vogue, and one look at this frosted white acrylic cube reveals why. It's effortlessly stylish, and its unique 45° angle delivers just the right amount of eye-catching surprise. And because it takes up little table space, it might inspire you to embrace minimalist design elsewhere in your decor. (In other words, this card holder is totally Zen.)
