A practical essential with a clean, modern edge, Clip Card Holders keep signage secure and clearly presented across any service style. Designed with a simple clip mechanism and a variety of materials and finishes, this collection offers an easy way to display cards with stability and understated style from buffet lines to tabletop settings.

Simple geometric shapes are always en vogue, and one look at this brushed aluminum cube reveals why. It's effortlessly stylish, and the attached alligator clip elevates your signage so it can be seen from across the dining room. And because it takes up little table space, it might inspire you to embrace minimalist design elsewhere in your decor. (In other words, this card holder is totally Zen.)
