Write, wipe, repeat. These elegant Ceramic Card Signs can be used and reused again and again. And because you can write directly on the sign, no paper or plastic cards are necessary, making this an environmentally conscious alternative to traditional card holders. You get a useful, stylish addition to your tabletop space, and the Earth gets a break. Talk about a win-win.

This 3-3/4" L x 2-1/2" W rectangular ceramic sign has a simple, sturdy construction that takes up as little tabletop space as possible. When you need to reuse it, a single wipe is all it takes to start with a clean slate. We love old-school card signs, but this is a chic card-free alternative that will simplify your stock. Marker not included.
