These ash wood serving boards and peels feature rich natural patterns that make each piece one-of-a-kind. Perfect for bars, bistros and other settings that call for rustic warmth; they're unique, earthy stages for any cuisine. But wood is good for more than pleasing the eye; these pieces are quite durable, and their dark tones help mask everyday wear and tear. In other words, these gorgeous peels and boards are bound to become mainstays in your dining room. There's a size and style for every need, so whether you're serving farm-to-table charcuterie or classic deli sandwiches, you can give them a boost with these unique, homey pieces. Hand-wash only.

This 21" L x 10" W serving board embodies the value of simple, durable design. It pairs a sleek design with a chic ash construction to create a supremely versatile stage for serving sushi, tapas or other small bites. Plus, it's a killer way to spice up a dessert case. At American Metalcraft, we're always on the hunt for innovative new presentation materials, but when it comes to serving meals with people-pleasing style and durability, you just can't go wrong with real wood.
