Add a touch of sophistication to your buffet with our rectangular Mesa chafers. Featuring a harmonious blend of copper or stainless steel with robust wrought iron, these chafers are designed to impress in any setting. Their sleek rectangular shape exudes versatility and style, pairing perfectly with other Mesa Collection pieces or standing out on their own.

Add a textured and intricate look to your buffet line with this 8 quart rectangular hammered stainless steel roll top chafer. Its unique features include a roll top lid that locks at 90 degrees and 180 degrees for easy use by staff and guests alike. The cover positions also allow for single or dual sided serving – perfect for a busy dining room. The frame has a shelf that runs the length of the pan to easily and safely hold your chafer fuel, and also boasts a built-in spoon rest to keep your food presentation tidy. With an elegant and strong wrought iron frame, this chafer adds long-lasting appeal to any buffet.
