The Amano Collection is the perfect union of contemporary flair and handmade workmanship. Each piece is hand forged from durable stainless steel for a unique yet sophisticated look. Available in all the most popular sizes to accessorize the buffet.

These 9" L stainless steel tongs are ideal for serving dinner rolls, salads, and proteins. They feature a spoon and forked end that ensure saucier foods and salads are easier to serve. Best of all, these tongs are handmade and designed to have a contemporary, urban aesthetic that easily elevates a table. With these tongs, along with the rest of the buffetware in the Amano Collection, you will have a buffet that marries functionality and flair perfectly.
