The Amano Collection is the perfect union of contemporary flair and handmade workmanship. Each piece is hand forged from durable stainless steel for a unique yet sophisticated look. Available in all the most popular sizes to accessorize the buffet.

Create a beautiful buffet starting with these 11-3/4" L hand forged stainless steel tongs, designed to be the epitome of style and function. The tongs feature a spoon and fork feature at the end that make serving salads, pastas, proteins, and more easy. There is a long handle that makes serving on a buffet line a breeze. Pair it with the rest of the items in the Amano Collection to complete the look.
